TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and the unaudited financial statements of the company for the year to 31 March 2019.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives

The objects set out in the Memorandum of Association of the company are:
To promote education and science by supporting other charities working in areas relating to agriculture and food production to make better use of their funds.

AFCP believes that greater effectiveness can be achieved by appropriate collaborations and information exchange, either with charities or other organisations e.g colleges, research organisations. AFCP is a facilitator, primarily through the medium of its website, that brings together those looking for educational or research funding and charities providing appropriate grants that meet these needs, also arranging meetings for charities, funders and researchers to share information and ideas.

During the past year AFCP has delivered its charitable objectives by acting as an umbrella or resource organisation that freely provides information for the benefit of the public and those charities supporting the industry. In support of its objectives a range of activities have been undertaken.

Aims

To identify, develop and communicate opportunities and synergies for collaboration between charities operating in the agrifood sector.

To provide information to individuals seeking to establish or develop their careers in the agrifood sector through support from charities and other not-for-profit organisations, primarily through the provision of an up-to-date and relevant website.

Activities:

The principal activity of the company during the period was the promotion of the activities and operation of the charities supporting the agricultural, food and land based industries, together with the coordination and provision of information to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the said group of charities.

During the year, the AFCP has helped to strengthen links between charities, and also between charities and those they support, including universities and agricultural colleges. To this end, three regional meetings were held during the year, in Shropshire (Harper Adams University), Somerset (the Bath and West Agricultural Society Showground) and Cambridgeshire (the National Institute for Agricultural Botany). In both Somerset and Cambridgeshire, the focus of the meeting was joint AFCP/AHDB studentships which are currently ongoing and involve a number of charities. A third project with the same model of collaborative funding is due to commence in September 2019.

The biennial Student Forum has been arranged for April 2019 and will be held at the University of Reading. Approximately 30 students funded by member charities have registered to attend, along with trustees and university supervisors.

A quarterly newsletter is now sent to all members and is available to others via the AFCP website. It includes news of recent and future activities, and opportunities for charity funding.

The website continues to provide information on opportunities for individuals seeking charitable support for their specific activity. It is regularly reviewed and refreshed to keep it up to date.

Public Benefit

The charity meets its objective of enabling people who are seeking financial support for educational activities related to the science and practice of agriculture and food production to identify appropriate charities. This enables charities working in this field to be more effective and enables them to provide more public benefit.

Anyone can use the charity's services for the public benefit via an open access searchable website. The charity provides freely available access to opportunities for those seeking support for educational & research activities related to the science and practice of agriculture and food production. Public benefit results from quicker, more cost effective access to appropriate funding which facilitates education & research.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Agrifood Charities Partnership (AFCP) is a registered charity (No. 1162177) and a company (No. 6510709), incorporated on 20 February 2008. A board of directors, who also act as Trustees, manages AFCP in accordance with the Articles of Association of the company.

Trustees are recruited through the network of agrifood charities and it is the intention that the Board represents the cross-section of activities in the sector. No Trustee receives any benefit from AFCP.

The outgoing CEO operated on a pro bono basis and was reimbursed for expenses incurred when acting on AFCP business; the Financial Administrator is paid on a self-employed basis.

Going forward, at least in the short term, the Chairman will develop activities agreed by the Board, working with Board members and other individuals. The latter may be remunerated for their work in some instances.

The Chairman and Board would like to pay tribute to the support for AFCP from former directors, Rev Gordon Gatward and the late Mr Anthony Burgess.

This report and the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with these documents, relevant statutory requirements and the Statement of Recommended Practice on Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2015.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The Trustees confirm that AFCP has participated in activities in pursuit of its charitable aims and objectives as explained in the Activities Section above.

FINANCIAL REVIEW AND RESERVES POLICY

The charity recorded a surplus showing income exceeding costs by £6,570 compared to £2,049 in year to 31 March 2018.

Funds held on reserve at 1 April 2019 are £13,047; AFCP has no other assets. The considerable improvement in the financial position is mainly the result of the CEO working pro bono.

AFCP's Reserves Policy is for the company to hold 6 months operating costs as a reserve.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS

The Charities Act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the period and of the surplus or deficiency for the period then ended.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies, as described on page 11-12, and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The trustees must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
